

MAN FOREVER

MAN FOREVER

Man Forever Part One
Man Forever Part Two

Man Forever does not believe in the suicidal impulse. The creator of Man Forever music believes in the ability of mankind to transcend all self-created obstacles with self-created solutions for the destruction we have brought to our world. He believes that we will endure and that through our ingenuity we will be reborn into a new Eden.

Recorded by Kid Millions (Oneida) over a weekend after seeing the Fireworks Ensemble's performance of Ulrich Krieger's transcription of Metal Machine Music, Man Forever is the maelstrom on the surface of a river. Kid Millions writes:

"A few months ago I went to see Fireworks Ensemble perform Metal Machine Music, I read the liner notes for the show, listened to the original record and learned how the piece was originally recorded and discovered Ulrich Krieger's transcription process. During the performance I was inspired to record an album right away. A conversation I'd had a year or so ago with Brian Chase (from the YYYs) about just intonation tuning with drums popped into my head and I realized I could do something with acoustic drums inspired by the "noise" of electric instruments. I visualized a monolithic recording that would utilize the rich tonality of carefully tuned acoustic drums, played powerfully and multi-tracked at different speeds onto the Ocropolis (Oneida's Brooklyn Studio) 16 track 1" tape machine. I asked Brian Chase to come to the studio and help me tune my drums so I could capture my ambition for the piece. Richard Hoffman (Sightings) added some bass to the final mix. The tempo is something like 180BPM. The piece moves fast at an almost imperceptible rhythm. It feels overwhelming and fluctuates constantly. Turn it up!"

Shahin Motia from Ex Models and Oneida recorded the album and acted as a producer of the recordings. Kid Millions is touring the project throughout the North East after the album is released.
